Dear Chairman Cummings:

I am counsel to the Trump Organization and write in response to your January 8, 2019 letter requesting documents relating to payments involving Michael Cohen.

In light of the ongoing inquiries concerning this subject, we respectfully decline to provide the documents you have requested at this time. Documents relating to the payments referenced in your letter have previously been provided to, and are currently in the possession of, the authorities. We understand from various public statements that the Committee has no interest in interfering with ongoing inquiries. We appreciate the Committee's forbearance under these circumstances.

Respectfully yours,

Alan F. Futerfas
